

Summer Work Project for Children – The Year of Gratitude to His Holiness the 14th
Dalai Lama.

Dear Children,

As we move into summer, you will get more opportunities to do outdoor activities. But always remember to follow physical distancing rules and hand hygiene. Your safety is most important for you and for us.

This year we would like to offer you an opportunity to engage in a creative project that will enable you to learn about our country Tibet in a different way. You can pick any one topic related to Tibet and write a song, poem, essay or draw a picture. It could be about HH the Dalai Lama, a festival, costumes, city, important palace like Potala palace, folk song and dance, rivers and the mountains of Tibet. You can also be creative like using your parent's phone (with their permission) to take pictures of Tibetan artifacts or household items in your home and write their names in Tibetan language. If you happen to go to parks, woods and lakes, you can look for flowers, trees, birds, animals as you find them and take their picture and see if you could find names of the subject of your picture in Tibetan language. Ask your parents to help you with the project.

For submission of your work, either make a five minute video on YouTube or create photo collage of your work and email it to us at programs@tcccgc.org. We will post your work on our new school website. You may also win interesting prizes.

Please submit your work by Aug 16, 2020.

If you have questions or you need further clarity, you can always write to us programs@tcccgc.org.

Have a safe and wonderful summer.
